Themes for Islahi Program

These themes or Topics can be used for Weekly Program / Monthly Programs / Discussion during one to one meets and Squad works.

Here the focus is exclusively on Surah An'am (6) to Surah Tawbah (9), highlighting the challenges encountered by prophets, how their followers faced these challenges, and the consequences of denying prophethood.

1. Universality and Continuity of Prophethood: -
    - Surah An'am (6:42-48): Discusses how messengers were sent to every community to warn them of the consequences of disbelief.
2. Rejection Faced by Prophets:
    - Surah An'am (6:34): Highlights the rejection faced by prophets and assures that Allah's words cannot be altered.
3. The Story of Prophet Noah (Nuh):
    - Surah A'raf (7:59-64): Details Noah's challenge in conveying his message and the denial by his people.
4. The Story of Prophet Abraham (Ibrahim):
    - Surah An'am (6:74-83): Abraham's questioning of idol worship and his people's response.
5. The Story of Prophet Moses (Musa) and Pharaoh:
    - Surah A'raf (7:103-137): Narrates the confrontation between Moses and Pharaoh, showcasing the challenges Moses faced.
6. The Struggle of Prophet Muhammad (sws) in Makkah
    - Surah An'am (6:33): Reflects on the sorrow felt by Prophet Muhammad due to the rejection of his message by the Quraysh.
7. Consequences of Denying Prophethood:
    - Surah A'raf (7:96-97): Warns of the consequences faced by towns that denied the truth when it came to them.
8. The Importance of Following Divine Guidance:
    - Surah An'am (6:155): Emphasizes the importance of following the guidance in the Qur'an to avoid severe consequences.
9. The Role of the Prophet Muhammad (sws) as a Warner:
    - Surah An'am (6:19): Positions Prophet Muhammad as a warner to mankind with the Qur'an as clear evidence. 10.
10. The Mercy of Repentance:
    - Surah At-Tawbah (9:104): Allah's acceptance of repentance and His mercy towards those who turn back to Him.
11. The Concept of Jihad in Islam:
    - Understand the comprehensive concept of Jihad, including its spiritual, social, and combative aspects, and the conditions under which it is pursued (Surah Al-Baqarah, 2:216; Surah At-Tawbah, 9:36).
12. The Battle of Badr and Divine Support:

- Surah Anfal (8:9-18): Describes the Battle of Badr, highlighting the divine support given to believers against their enemies.

13. The Significance of the Hijrah (Migration):
    - Reflect on the Hijrah from Makkah to Medina as a turning point in Islamic history, focusing on its significance in establishing the Muslim community (Surah At-Tawbah, 9:20).
14. The Unity and Brotherhood Among Believers:
    - Surah Anfal (8:46): Urges believers to remain united and obedient to Allah and His Messenger to achieve victory.
15. The Role of the Mosque in the Community:
    - Examine the role of the mosque in the early Muslim community as a center for worship, education, and social welfare (Surah At-Tawbah, 9:18).
16. Treaties and Diplomacy in Islam:
    - Study the principles of treaties, diplomacy, and dealing with breaches of agreements, as exemplified in the Treaty of Hudaybiyyah and subsequent events (Surah Al-Anfal, 8:58-61; Surah At-Tawbah, 9:1-12).
17. Role of Women in Supporting the Prophetic Mission:
    - The narratives, especially in the context of the struggles of prophets like Muhammad (Surah At-Tawbah, 9:40, where the support of his companions, implicitly including women, was crucial during the migration to Medina), highlight the importance of support and sacrifice from the entire community, including women, in the success of the prophetic mission.
18. Protection of the Community:
    - Surah At-Tawbah (9:71) mentions believing men and women being allies of one another, enjoining what is right, forbidding what is wrong, establishing prayer, and giving zakat. This verse underscores the mutual responsibility of men and women in protecting and supporting the moral and social fabric of the Muslim community.
19. Moral and Ethical Conduct:
    - Surah Al-Anfal (8:27-28): Warns against betraying Allah and the Messenger and betraying trusts among one another. It teaches that moral integrity and trustworthiness are vital for individual and communal well-being.
20. Commitment to the Covenant with Allah:
    - Surah At-Tawbah (9:111):Illustrates the believers' commitment to their covenant with Allah, willing to strive in His cause. This commitment underpins the societal values of sacrifice, dedication, and striving for the collective good.